Day 1 Kampala—Murchison Falls National Park

We drive 7 hours north to Murchison Falls National Park. The park is bisected by the River Nile, and as we approach, we drop in altitude to about 700 metres above sea level.

Day 2 Murchison Falls National Park

An early start this morning, as we enjoy a game drive on the north bank of the Nile. This is some of the best game viewing in Uganda, with numerous Oribi, and herds of Elephant, Buffalo, Hartebeeste, Uganda Kob and Giraffe. We enjoy "elevenesses" in the bush and then head back to the lodge for lunch.

In the afternoon, we take a boat trip on the Nile, making our way upriver to the Murchison Falls themselves. On the way we see numerous bird species, plains game that come to the water to drink, and of course lots of Hippo and Crocodile.

Day 3 Murchison Falls National Park—Ziwa Ranch

We drive south, stopping in at the top of the falls on the way to give us another perspective on the sheer power of the water. We then make our way to Ziwa Ranch, a sanctuary for Uganda's White Rhino population. We will track Rhino on foot this evening.
